1. INTRODUCTION

This report is prepared in accordance with section 72 of the Privacy Act and is tabled in Parliament by the Minister of Canadian Heritage in accordance with the aforementioned section. It describes how Ingenium – Canada’s Museums of Science and Innovation fulfilled its responsibilities under the Privacy Act during the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2022 and ending March 31, 2023.

The Privacy Act provides citizens with the legislated right to access personal information held by the government, subject to certain limitations and specific exemptions, and protection of that information against unauthorized use and disclosure.

Ingenium was established as an autonomous Crown Corporation on July 1, 1990, with the passage of the Museums Act. The mandate of the Corporation as stated in the Act is:

To foster scientific and technological literacy throughout Canada by establishing, maintaining and developing a collection of scientific and technological objects, with special but not exclusive reference to Canada, and by demonstrating the products and processes of science and technology and their economic, social and cultural relationships with society.

Most information collected by Ingenium concerns classes of individuals and does not allow individuals to be identified. Therefore, most applications for information fall under the Access to Information Act and not under the Privacy Act. Nearly all inquiries about individuals are by employees of Ingenium. Most of those requests are handled on an informal basis in keeping with the spirit of the Act. Statistics are not maintained on the number of informal requests.

Ingenium has no wholly owned subsidiaries or non-operational institutions.

2. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

The Corporate Secretariat of Ingenium – Canada’s Museums of Science and Innovation¹ administers the provisions of the Privacy Act and the Access to Information Act on behalf of Ingenium and is accountable to the President and CEO of Ingenium. Given the low volume of requests, Ingenium does not assign a full FTE to these activities. As such, two staff - the Director, Strategic Planning, Policy, and Results, as well as the Advisor, Governance and Compliance - undertake the following activities as part of their roles:

- processing all requests made under the Acts;
- developing policies, guidelines and procedures with respect to fulfilling the Corporation’s legislative requirements of both Acts;
- promoting awareness of both Acts, delivering training, and providing advice and guidance to ensure that employees and management understand their roles and responsibilities;
- monitoring compliance with both Acts;
- ensuring Ingenium publications tabled in Parliament are posted to Ingenium’s website within

¹ The legal name of the Corporation is the National Museum of Science and Technology. The name “Ingenium - Canada’s Museums of Science and Innovation” is used publicly in communications, other than when the legal name is required.

- the legislated timeframe;
- completing Privacy Impact Assessments (PIAs);
- coordinating reporting on privacy breaches;
- participating in and contributing to the broader ATIP community of practice;
- uploading statistical reports;
- preparing annual reports for tabling; and,
- updating the Ingenium Info Source chapter annually.

The Corporate Secretariat is supported by one consultant for Ingenium's Privacy Act related activities.

Administrative procedures have been established for ensuring the protection of personal information and the proper direction of requests. Personal information holdings related to employees of Ingenium, and which serve the Human Resources Division, are maintained in a physically secure environment. Those records are managed in accordance with good records management principles and practices, and retention and disposal schedules are applied in accordance with Library and Archives Canada's direction and the Privacy Act.

Access to employee information files is available only to Personnel Officers who have a "need-to-know" requirement as part of their duties. To gain access, employees must request access through those officers.

Ingenium was not party to any service agreements under section 73.1 of the Privacy Act during the reporting period.
